These cells, which are visible under the microscope, are, as thus observed, apparently all alike. Yet they are divisible into two classes, according to the functions which they have to perform. Those cells lying nearest the bark contribute a permanent accretion to the bark and thicken it for the better protection of the tree as its growth increases. Two Jews have received from Emperor Frederick the highest order of nobility in Prussia, and he has practically banished from Berlin Mr. Stoecker, the inveterate enemy of the Semitic race.

EMPEROR WILLIAM was chivalrous towards women of all degrees. He kissed the hands of ladies who were of his circle when he met them in private, and, like Louis XIV., he would stand aside and let a housemaid go past him.

It is a curious fact that while Queen Victoria speaks German in her home circle, the present German Empress disregards it in hers and uses English as much as possible. English is the fireside tongue of the Greek, Danish and Russian royal families. CHRISTINA, the young Queen-Regent of Spain, is very fond of music, but does not care to go to public places of entertainment, so she has a large speaking telephone, connecting her palace with the Madrid Opera-House, and listens to all the great singers without leaving her room.

ARTIFICIAL flowers are going out of use in England and lace coming in in about equal ratio. In 1882 the value of flowers imported reached the enormous sum of $2,500,000, while in 1886 this fell off to $1,250,000. The increase in the importation of lace meanwhile has amounted to more than all these figures of artificial flowers together.

THE Copts of Egypt have a very old industry, that of artificial egg hatching. There are 700 such establishments within a short distance of Cairo, and the production of chickens from the ovens reaches 12,000,-900 annually. THE late Emperor William was two years Scintilleting with Sarcasm and Brilliant Truth.

New York Letter.

Chap. I. "Has Malaria;" ses to Florida. Chap. II. "Overworked;" ses to Europe. Chap. III. "His Rheumatism;" goes to Ems Chap. IV. Has a row with his Doctor. I have read a deal of sarcasm in my day but I never read anything equal to the sarcasm contained in the above four chaptered book, written by some anonymous. I suspect the experience portrayed is a personal one; the author intimates as much on page 31. Let me give you a synopsis: "Malaria" as it states, "is the cloak with which superficial physicians cover up a multitude of ill feelings which they do not understand, and do not much care to investigate. It is also a cover for such diseases as they can not cure. When they advise their patient to travel or that he has overworked and needs rest and is probably suffering from malaria, it is a confession of ignorance or of inability." 'The patient goes abroad. The change is tonic and for a time he feels better. Comes home. Fickle appetite, frequent headaches, severe colds, cramps, sleeplessness, irritability, tired feelings, and general unfitness for business are succeeded in due time by alarming attacks of rheumatism which flits about his body regardless of all human feelings.

"It is muscular-in his back. Articular -in his joints. Inflammatory, my! how he fears it will fly to his heart! "Now off he goes to the springs. The doctor sends him there, of course, to get well; at the same time he does not really want him to die on his hands! That would hurt his business! "Better for a few days. Returns. After while neuralgia transfixes him. He bloats; can not breathe; has pneumonia; can not walk; can not sleep on his left side; is fretful; very nervous and irritable; is pale and flabby; has frequent chills and fevers; everything about him seems to go wrong; becomes suspicious; musters up ourage and demands to know what is killing him !

"Great heaven!" he cries, "why have you kept me so long in ignorance?" "Because," said the doctor, "I read your fate five years ago. I thought best to keep you ignorant of the facts." He dismisses his doctor, but too late! His fortune has all gone in fees. But him, what becomes of him? The other day a well known Wall Street banker said to me "it is really astonishing how prevalent bright's disease is becoming Two of my personal friends are now dying of it. But it is not incurable I am certain, for my nephew was recently cured when his physicians said recovery was impossible. I happen to know what it was that cure the boy, for Genl. Christiansen, of Drexel, Morgan & Co's., told me that it was that wonderful remedy Warner's safe cure.' Well, I suspect the hero of the book cured himself by the same means. I can not close my notice better than by nuoting the author's advice:

"If, my friend, you have such an experience as I have portrayed, do not put your having been his Lieutenant since 1872, has an trust in physicians to the exclusion of other remedial agencies.
